Appointment of Director

On March 17, 2017, the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of AntriaBio, Inc. (the “Company”) appointed Tae Hoon Kim and Samir R. Patel, M.D. to the Board.

Mr. Kim brings to the Board a wealth of experience from his time at Genentech, Inc. and most recently as Chief Operating Officer at Aju Pharm, a pharmaceutical company in the Republic of Korea. Mr. Kim holds a B.S. in Cellular & Molecular Biology from the University of Michigan and an M.B.A. from Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.

Dr. Patel is co-founder, principal and former CEO of SPEC Pharma, LLC, which specializes in injectable therapies with complex manufacturing. He is also co-founder, principal and CEO of Digital Therapeutics, LLC, a company investigating therapies for digital ulcerations, a severe rheumatologic condition with high unmet medical need. Dr. Patel previously served as Medical Director of Centocor, Inc., a Johnson & Johnson Company where he oversaw Medical Affairs for Remicade, Stelara and Simponi. Prior to joining Centocor, he practiced adult and pediatric rheumatology in Austin, Texas. Dr. Patel holds a B.S. in Biology from the University of Cincinnati and an M.D. from the Medical College of Ohio. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine and fellowship in Rheumatology at the University of New Mexico.

Each newly appointed director is independent as defined by Section 803A of the NYSE MKT LLC Company Guide. Dr. Patel has invested approximately $2 million in the Company. In the event the newly appointed directors are appointed to committees of the Board, if any, the Company will file an amendment to this Current Report on Form 8-K to disclose such committee appointments.

The Company has not entered into any agreements, arrangements or understandings with Mr. Kim or Dr. Patel regarding their appointment to the Company’s Board.

Item 7.01. Regulation FD Disclosure.

On March 22, 2017, the Company issued the press release attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 announcing the appointment of Mr. Kim and Dr. Patel to the Board. In accordance with General Instruction B.2 of Form 8-K, the information set forth herein and in the press release is deemed to be “furnished” and shall not be deemed to be “filed” for purposes of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The information set forth in Item 7.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K shall not be deemed an admission as to the materiality of any information in this Current Report on Form 8-K that is required to be disclosed solely to satisfy the requirements of Regulation FD.

AntriaBio Appoints Two Pharmaceutical Executives to its Board of Directors

LOUISVILLE, CO – (Marketwired) – March 22, 2017 – AntriaBio, Inc. (“AntriaBio or the “Company”) (OTCQB: ANTB), a biopharmaceutical growth company specializing in the development of innovative drug therapies for patients with diabetes and metabolic diseases, announced today the appointment of Tae Hoon Kim and Samir R. Patel, M.D. to its Board of Directors. Mr. Kim and Dr. Patel join AntriaBio’s Board as the Company prepares to conduct the first-in-human clinical study for its lead product candidate, AB101, a once-weekly basal insulin in development for patients with type 1 and type 2 diabetes.

Nevan Elam, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer stated, “We are delighted to have Tae Hoon and Samir join our Board. They have invaluable industry knowledge and expanding our Board is an important step as we contemplate listing on a national stock exchange in the near future.”

Mr. Kim brings to the Board a wealth of experience from his time at Genentech, Inc. and most recently as Chief Operating Officer at Aju Pharm, a pharmaceutical company in the Republic of Korea with more than 60 years of operations and over 220 manufactured products in the pharmaceutical, medical device and consumer health businesses. Mr. Kim holds a B.S. in Cellular & Molecular Biology from the University of Michigan and an M.B.A. from Tuck School of Business at Dartmouth College.

“After visiting AntriaBio’s headquarters as part of Aju Pharm’s diligence efforts, I am very impressed with the team as well as the technology behind AB101,” stated Mr. Kim. “This is an exciting time for the Company and I look forward to joining the Board and working closely with the management team to explore strategic opportunities and continue to enhance the Company’s prospects.”

Dr. Patel is co-founder, principal and former CEO of SPEC Pharma, LLC, which specializes in injectable therapies with complex manufacturing. He is also co-founder, principal and CEO of Digital Therapeutics, LLC, a company investigating therapies for digital ulcerations, a severe rheumatologic condition with high unmet medical need. Dr. Patel previously served as Medical Director of Centocor, Inc., a Johnson & Johnson Company, where he oversaw Medical Affairs for Remicade, Stelara and Simponi. Prior to joining Centocor, he practiced adult and pediatric rheumatology in Austin, Texas. Dr. Patel holds a B.S. in Biology from the University of Cincinnati and an M.D. from the Medical College of Ohio. He completed his residency in Internal Medicine and fellowship in Rheumatology at the University of New Mexico.

“My enthusiasm for AntriaBio has grown as I continue to interact with AntriaBio’s Board and team members. I am truly impressed by the evolution and progress of the company over the past year,” Dr. Patel stated. “As a Board member, I look forward to applying my medical and business expertise to help advance the Company’s promising pipeline of drug candidates.”
